ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Leesburg Police Department is extremely proud of the culture of #community that is instilled in each of our officers. While we are not always aware of the random acts of kindness that each of our staff performs on a daily basis, every now and then we hear of a wonderful encounter between one of our own and a member of the community. Even more rare is for that message to come nearly 24 years later regarding one of our recent retirees. This week a community member reached out about a chance encounter that he had with then Officer Steven Pebler in 1998. The following is an excerpt of that message:

"In 1998, I was unfortunately diagnosed with cancer for which I underwent several horrific rounds of chemotherapy. It was while nearing the end of my chemo treatments in October 1998 when I (while driving my then new Jeep Grand Cherokee Limited to the Dulles Jeep Eagle dealership - where I purchased it earlier - for needed maintenance) I became physically exhausted and decided at the last moment to sleep in my vehicle until their Jeep service department opened the next morning.

As dusk arrived, so also (out of curiosity and then concern) did your fellow Leesburg Virginia police Officer Steven Pebler who approached my vehicle (with me somewhat struggling to somehow rest/sleep inside).

After reluctantly explaining my unfortunate health (as well as my Jeep's recent mechanical circumstances), Officer Pebler, noticing my physically compromised state of health (post-chemo effects; loss of hair, etc.) then, out of a rare (to me) yet wonderful act of humanity and concern, kindly offered to put me up for the night at the local "Best Western" hotel.

After Officer Pebler had me checked into the "Best Western" (pulling out his own wallet and presenting the desk clerk with his own credit card), I nearly in tears (of happiness and relief), profusely thanked Officer Pebler (my "Guardian Angel") for his profound kindness.

As I settled into my comfortable hotel room, I remember (then exhausted, collapsing on the end of the hotel room bed) crying (out of happiness and gratitude) for this WONDERFUL soul (Officer Pebler) who, out of the pure kindness of his heart, in turn lifted mine, for which I would forever remember (and be thankful).

For years, since my move away from Virginia, I have been trying (desperately) to find (once again) the file folder containing the documents (pictured above) reminding me of a special "Guardian Angel" (by the name of Officer Steven Pebler) who kindly helped this soul (me) during one of my darkest hours. Today was that day and the reason why I quickly and excitedly called to convey this delayed (my apologies) communicate of heartfelt thanks to him."

On behalf of the Leesburg Police Department, thank you Sgt. Pebler for your legacy of making a difference!
