Leesburg Police Department Baseball Camp

Location: Freedom Park Baseball Field

Dates: June 20- June 23, 2023

Times: 0800-1200

Participants will be divided into small groups (infield, outfield, pitching, catching), and will receive instruction in the fundamental skills of baseball. Officer's Carter, DaRin and volunteers will work together to teach each participant those fundamental skills.

In those small groups, participants will work on the mechanics of hitting, fundamentals of fielding (infield and outfield), pitching, catching, baserunning and other strategies to teach each participant and help them learn the game. We will also discuss each position on the field and what their responsibilities are.

We will have volunteers from LCH baseball team assisting with instruction. We also plan on having a guest speaker from a AAA team come speak to the kids about the game.

Each parent and child will sign a liability, medical release, and media release. Also, each child will provide their experience with baseball.

Each participant will receive a camp T-shirt.
